

Jamison Rice Joins ABILITY Network as Executive Vice President and CFO

MINNEAPOLIS – June 19, 2017 – ABILITY® Network, a leading healthcare information technology company, announced today that Jamison (Jamie) Rice has joined the company as executive vice president and chief financial officer (CFO). In this role Rice will have accountability for leading the company's Finance, Strategy and Corporate Development functions to advance the long-term growth strategy for ABILITY.

Media Contact:

Jennifer Marso

612.277.3953

jennifer.marso@abilitynetwork.com

About ABILITY

ABILITY® Network is a leading information technology company helping providers and payers simplify the administrative and clinical complexities of healthcare through innovative applications and data analytics. ABILITY is headquartered in Minneapolis with principal offices in Boston and Tampa.

Follow us on Twitter, LinkedIn, and Facebook.

“Jamie brings deep operational, strategy, finance and technology experience, built over more than 20 years in the healthcare industry,” said Mark A. Pulido, chairman and CEO of ABILITY. “His strong background, coupled with his proven track record of achievement, means he is exceptionally well-suited to advance the growth of ABILITY. I’m very excited to welcome Jamie to the ABILITY team.”

“ABILITY’s growth trajectory and demonstrated success show me that ABILITY is making a meaningful difference in the healthcare industry,” said Rice. “When you combine the tremendous growth opportunity with a company culture focused on helping its customers, I knew I wanted to be a part of this team.”

Rice joined ABILITY from Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Minnesota (BCBSMN) where he held a number of executive leadership positions. Most recently he was EVP and chief administrative officer, responsible for Operations, Strategy, Finance, Enterprise Technology and Business Transformation. Prior to that, he was SVP of Health Plan Operations and chief technology officer, a role in which he led Health Plan Operations, Information Technology and Data Insights. He also served as SVP and CFO, providing leadership for Financial Planning & Analysis, Financial Controls & Processes, Tax, Treasury, Actuarial, Underwriting and Corporate Development.

Before joining BCBSMN he was principal and CFO for Yukon Partners Management, LLC, a private investment firm focused on middle-market companies. Earlier in his career he spent eight years at UnitedHealth Group in various leadership roles, including CFO of UnitedHealthcare, VP of Finance for UnitedHealthcare and CFO of UnitedHealth Networks. Rice began his career as a certified public accountant, working for one of the largest accounting firms in the country.

He is a graduate of the University of St. Thomas, with a B.A. degree in Business Administration, Accounting. He is also a board member of Second Harvest Heartland and Make-A-Wish Minnesota.

Rice will be based in Minneapolis, Minnesota.

###

© 2016, Forbes Media LLC. Used with permission.

ABILITY®

For more information about ABILITY, please visit www.abilitynetwork.com or contact info@abilitynetwork.com.