MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. – Dec. 10, 2014 – ABILITY Network, a leading healthcare technology company, announced today that Mark A. Pulido has joined the organization as the Chairman of its Board of Directors. Pulido is a nationally recognized expert with over three decades of experience in the healthcare industry.

“I am thrilled to have Mark join ABILITY in this key leadership role,” said Mark Briggs, CEO of ABILITY Network. “He’s been a leader in our industry and a good friend to ABILITY for many years. I’m looking forward to Mark’s expertise as ABILITY advances our vision of improving the patient experience across the care continuum.”

“ABILITY has a proven and tremendous record of growth,” said Pulido. “Most importantly, the leadership team has ensured that the growth is strategic, thoughtful, and focused on improving healthcare in every corner of this country. I’m excited and eager to join this board with its broad, deep experience in healthcare.”

Pulido currently also serves as Chairman of the Board of Quidel Corporation (QDEL), a developer, manufacturer and marketer of point of care diagnostic tests.

Previously Pulido was the Chairman of BenefitPoint, Inc., a venture capital backed employee benefits technology company, where he also served as its President and Chief Executive Officer. Pulido also spent time at McKesson Corporation, a Fortune 15 healthcare services and information technology company, where he served as President and Chief Executive Officer. He also served as President and Chief Executive Officer of Novartis Pharmaceuticals Corporation, USA (formerly Sandoz), a research based pharmaceutical manufacturer, and Red Line Healthcare Corporation, a specialty long-term care distribution and medical billing company.

Pulido is an industry executive with Freeman Spogli, a private equity firm, and serves on the Board of Microstar LLC, a leading provider of keg management services to the craft beer industry. He previously served on the Boards of the Charles Schwab Corporation, a financial services company; Imation Corporation, a technology company; Sunrise Medical, Inc., a home medical equipment manufacturer; Smile Brands Group, a dental practice management company; Winebow, Inc., a leading importer and distributor of fine wines; and BHC, an industrial products distributor.

Pulido holds a B.S. degree in Pharmacy from the University of Arizona, College of Pharmacy, and an M.S. degree in Pharmacy Administration from the University of Minnesota.
