MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. – Jan. 18, 2016 – ABILITY Network, a leading healthcare information technology company, announced today the promotion of John Porricolo to Senior Vice President of Marketing. In this role Porricolo will lead the company's national marketing efforts to healthcare providers, payers and vendor partners.

“On behalf of ABILITY Network and the executive team, I am very pleased to announce John’s promotion to this key position,” said Bud Meadows, Chief Revenue Officer and Executive Vice President of ABILITY Network. “John’s experience, leadership and dedication since joining ABILITY three years ago have significantly contributed to ABILITY’s impressive growth.”

“I am thrilled and humbled to work with such a talented and outstanding group of professionals at ABILITY and look forward to being part of the company’s continued success,” said Porricolo.

Since joining ABILITY in 2012 Porricolo has built an industry-leading marketing team that has consistently achieved double-digit increases in lead generation growth for the company. He has more than 20 years’ experience in healthcare, starting his career on the provider side of the healthcare industry as a long-term care administrator. In 1995 he began working in sales for National Medical Systems/Medical Manager Corporation, a medical technology company based in Tampa, Florida. He was promoted to lead the company’s strategic business development, with a focus on helping shape its Internet position. The Medical Manager Corporation was taken public in 1997, and sold in 1999 for a market valuation of more than $1 billion. After leaving Medical Manager, Porricolo served as the Vice President of Business Development at KidsGrowth, where he focused on building its market and brand positioning. During his tenure KidsGrowth.com became the largest online community for pediatric professionals.
