MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. – Mar. 9, 2016 – ABILITY Network, a leading information technology company, announced today the promotion of Lynn Howard to Senior Vice President of Human Resources.

“I’m very pleased to recognize Lynn’s contributions with this well-deserved promotion,” said Ken Ernsting, Chief Operating Officer and Executive Vice President of ABILITY Network. “Since she joined ABILITY in 2014, Lynn has had a tremendous, positive impact in our organization. Her skills and experience in other fast-growing healthcare companies have added significant value to the ABILITY business dynamics and growth trajectory.”

“My time with ABILITY has been very rewarding,” said Howard. “I have had the opportunity to engage with all levels of the organization to ensure our human resources team is aligned with all parts of the business. I look forward to continuing to partner with other ABILITY employees to ensure the company achieves its growth goals.”

Since joining ABILITY, Howard has made substantial advances in building the company’s HR organization, including developing a human capital strategy that closely aligns with the strategic roadmap of ABILITY. Howard has maximized employee benefits while minimizing costs. She also has grown the ABILITY talent acquisition program to maintain pace with the company’s rapid growth, lowering recruiting costs at the same time. Howard also provides ongoing HR leadership and hands-on engagement for ABILITY acquisitions.

Howard has considerable healthcare experience, both with provider organizations and suppliers of products and services to providers. Before coming to ABILITY, she served as the Vice President of Human Resources at Surgical Care Affiliates, a leading provider of outpatient surgical care. Prior to that, Howard was Senior Vice President of Human Resources at MedAssets, a high-growth healthcare performance improvement company.
