ABILITY Network Named Winner at 18th Annual Tekne Awards

ABILITY | EASE All Payer Revenue Cycle Management Application Wins Software Category

MINNEAPOLIS – (November 20, 2017) – The Minnesota High Tech Association (MHTA) has named ABILITY® Network, a leading healthcare information technology company, winner in the Software (established company) category for the 2017 Tekne Awards. The Tekne Awards honor companies and individuals who have played a significant role in developing new technologies that positively impact the lives and futures of people living around the world.

ABILITY was recognized for ABILITY | EASE® All-Payer, its next generation, cloud-based, SaaS revenue cycle management (RCM) application. EASE All-Payer helps healthcare providers simplify the claims management process, speeds up reimbursement and eliminates the complexities associated with managing their revenue cycle.

“The healthcare industry continues to evolve, and that means providers are facing new and greater challenges,” said Mark A. Pulido, chairman and chief executive officer, ABILITY. “As an organization we are singularly focused on helping manage the complexity healthcare providers face. This recognition of ABILITY and our EASE All-Payer application demonstrates and reinforces our leadership in helping.”

Tekne Awards were presented to 13 of Minnesota's most influential companies, and recognized innovations in software, healthcare, STEM education, workforce development, Internet of Things, cyber security and more.

“Minnesota continues to be a national leader in technology and science, and this year's Tekne Award recipients are clear evidence of that,” said Margaret Anderson Kelliher, president and CEO of MHTA. “We are honored to recognize ABILITY Network for their innovations and achievements.”

A list of 2017 Tekne Award recipients and finalists is available online at www.tekneawards.org.
